

Haunted House Inventory

Wooden door; wide and creaky.
Sculking cat; snide and sneaky.
Skeletons; cold and clanky.
Madame Witch; old and cranky.
Ancient paintings; strange and spooky.
Watching eyes; crazed and looky.
Blackest bat; fast and flappy.
Venus Flytrap; mighty snappy.
Wailing ghosts; always moany.
Piano playing on its owny.
Time to go! Scream and shouty!
Read the sign - 'No Way Out-y!'

Julie Anna Douglas

Colour in the Haunted House then cut some ghost shapes out of tissue paper to haunt it.

Poem from 'Directions through a Fairytale (and other Poetic Adventures).' by Julie Anna Douglas and Jools Wilson.
Available to buy from www.joolswilson.com.

©Julie Anna Douglas and Jools Wilson